

Fall Studies for Adults

Sunday Evenings at 6 PM

Paul, by Walter Wangerin: This book, written as a novel, offers a unique look at Paul's life as well as the time in which he lived. Wangerin is well known for writing similar adaptations of other Biblical figures' lives that he has offered in the form of novels. This particular book was the winner of the Golden Medallion book award in 2000. The study will meet in Bobo Hall.

True Courage by Steve Farrar: This Men's Study will focus on the life of Daniel as well as how we too can find courage to rise above any circumstance while trusting in God who never abandons us. The cost of the book is $10. The study will meet in the Fireside Room.

Wisdom for Mothers: This study, based on Proverbs 31, will help mothers find biblical answers to important questions about marriage, parenting, and priorities. In addition to the Bible study, we'll find helpful mothering tips designed for moms of all ages at the end of each lesson. Kate Orcutt will lead this study. Cost is $15. Sign up by pew pad or a call to the church office.

Tuesdays

True Courage men's study is offered from 7-8am and again from 12-1pm.

Wednesday Evenings at 6 PM

The Beatitudes, led by Tommy Cox, in the Conference Room. This study reveals to us eight qualities that bring God's blessing. Jesus highlighted these to offer encouragement and instruction on living distinctly.

What Happens When We Die, led by Ricky Letson, in Bobo Hall. What happens when life is over? What does the Bible say and not say about the afterlife? These and other common questions about life after death will be discussed in this study.
