

Summer Opportunities for Adults

We will begin our Wednesday Morning Summer Book Study on Wednesday, June 7 from 8-9am in Bobo Hall. We will be reading Bill Hybels' book Simplify, which invites the reader to think about our modern struggles as people who are often who are often over scheduled, too busy and committed to the things that are unimportant, with little time left for those things that are important. We will meet each week during the summer months, and we will have pastries and coffee available each week. You may pick up your own copy of the book or stop by the church office and purchase one from FBC for $9. Rickey will lead this study.

The FBC Women's Ministry will sponsor a Summer Book Club, beginning Thursday, June 22 at 6:30pm in the Fireside Room. For the first meeting, the group will discuss the book When Crickets Cry by Charles Martin. On Thursday, July 20 the group will meet to discuss the book The Hiding Place by Corrie Ten Boom. Each of these books are available through christianbook.com, amazon.com, or barnesandnoble.com. If you need help in obtaining a copy of these, please contact the church office by May 24.

"Good Grief". We will be offering a two-part series on grief during the month of June. These sessions to help those who have lost someone or something that they love. These sessions will be offered June 18 and June 25 from 9:30am-10:30am (during the Sunday School hour) in Bobo Hall.

Our Men's Group studies will be taking a break during the summer months, but we resume in August. More information on the next series will be available in the coming months.
