Dear Church Family:

The Christmas season is a time of reflection in which we count our blessings and express our love for God and our fellow man. During this time, we need to remember our church staff members who devote a great deal of their time and energy to leading and assisting our family of faith throughout the year. The Lord has blessed our church with an outstanding staff. Our staff goes above and beyond with everything they do, and we are grateful for each of them.

The Deacons believe that we as a church family should express our joy and appreciation to our church staff through a Christmas love offering. This offering provides an opportunity during this Christmas season to say thank you, to express our love, and to show them we are thinking of them and praying for them.

To participate in this expression of love for our staff, please place your gifts in the envelope included in your monthly mailing and place it in the morning offering. You may also bring it by the church office no later than Wednesday, December 19, 2018.

On behalf of the Deacons and Finance Committee, we thank you for your support.

Yours in Christ,

Adam Taylor, Chairman
Finance Committee

David Corley, Chairman
Fellowship of Deacons
